XI. Member Comment –

- a. Rachel community member wanted to make the board and community aware that there is an end to the Childhood music program with Mr. Cooper at the Colonial Heights Library. This happened every Thursday evening there for the last 5 years. We have 30 to 50 families that have attended each Thursday. The fee was $65.00 a week for Mr. Cooper and there might be an issue with fundraising to keep this going.

Adjournment of the meeting at 8:23 pm.

The Nominations committee presented the new slate for 2018/2019 and was voted approved by the Tahoe Park Neighborhood Association board. The final approval of this slate will be voted on by the general membership on Wednesday, May 23, 2018.
